Description of work

Omega Environmental Services won an ongoing contract with Santander as a top asbestos removal supplier. Various projects have been completed over the past 3 years, with no major incidences occurring to date. The continuous success and high quality services delivered by Omega has contributed towards a healthy and flourishing relationship between both parties.

Method of work

As a result of this contract being long term, various projects have been completed. The type of asbestos removal operations has been wide-ranging. Omega has removed both non-notifiable and notifiable asbestos from asbestos insulation boards, sprayed pipe lagging/walls, etc. The removal and disposal of the asbestos contaminated insulation boards were removed under fully controlled conditions at all times. Our highly trained operatives implemented health and safety methods to provide a high quality service with exemplary levels of safety at the heart of every operation. During the course of the project various audits were carried out by the client, ARCA and of course our own internal Health and Safety director. Needless to say, all audits were of the highest standard.
